

Two perturbations cross the SAME boundary: mitogen withdrawal moves a cell down-and-left out of the cycle (with a few last divisions as Ezh2 falls in step); EZH2i moves an arrested MB cell straight down back into it.